ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

"COURT RULES OF PRACTICE ACT."

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to order that, pursuant to the "Court Rules of Practice Act," being chapter 249 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936," and all other powers thereunto enabling, the "Supreme Court Rules, 1925," be amended as follows:—

(a.) By striking out Rules 8, 9, and 10 of Order 65, and substituting therefor the following:—

"8. In all causes and matters where costs are payable and are subject to taxation such costs shall be taxed as follows:—

"(a.) Where costs are payable between party and party they shall be taxed in accordance with the provisions of Appendix N: Provided that in any cause or matter the Court or a Judge may direct that the costs payable to any party shall be taxed either under Appendix M or as between solicitor and client:

"(b.) In all other cases where costs are payable, including costs as between solicitor and client, such costs shall be taxed in accordance with the provisions of Appendix M, with such further allowances as the taxing officer or, in the case of a review of taxation, the Judge or the Court shall consider proper.

"9. Where the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council directs a party to bear the costs of an appeal to it incurred in British Columbia such costs shall be taxed by the Registrar in accordance with the provisions of Appendix M.

"10. 'Amount involved,' where used in this Order or in Appendix N, includes the value of the subject-matter in question in the cause or matter.

"10A. Subject to the provisions of Rules 10, 10B, and 10C, the amount involved shall in taxations under Appendix N be determined as against a plaintiff (including a plaintiff by counterclaim) by the claim made by him and as against a defendant (including a defendant by counterclaim) by the judgment given or decision rendered: Provided that the taxing officer shall, where necessary, receive evidence for the purpose of determining the amount involved.

"10B. For the purpose of determining the proper column for taxation of costs in any garnishee, attachment, interpleader, or other similar proceedings, the amount involved shall be deemed to be the amount involved in such proceedings irrespective of the amount claimed in or under any action or judgment in or under which such proceedings are taken, and the taxing officer shall, where necessary, receive evidence in order that he may determine the amount involved in such proceedings.

"10C. For the purpose of determining the proper column for taxation of costs in any action for redemption or foreclosure of a mortgage or other security or for the enforcement of an agreement for sale, the amount involved shall be deemed to be the amount of money, exclusive of costs, payable in order to redeem or to satisfy the plaintiff's claim, as the case may be.

"10D. Where in Appendix N there is a fee or allowance per diem, if the time occupied in any one day exceeds four and one-half hours the fee allowed may in the discretion of the taxing officer be increased by an amount not exceeding fifty per cent. of the fee allowed by the Tariff.

"10E. Subject to the provisions of Rule 2 of this Order, whenever any party shall be awarded the costs of some only of the issues, or part only of the total costs, the taxing officer shall, subject to review by a Judge, apportion the allowances under the items applicable.

"10F. (1.) In the event of any pending cause or matter being settled on the basis that any party thereto shall pay or recover costs of such cause or matter, if the amount of such costs is not determined by such settlement, then upon filing a memorandum of such settlement or a consent signed by both parties they shall be taxed by the taxing officer upon application of any party in the same manner as if an Order had been made for such taxation.

"(2.) Upon any taxation under this rule the amount involved shall be determined by the terms of the settlement; provided that if it is agreed by the parties to the said settlement that the costs shall be taxed under any one of the columns set forth in Appendix N, then they shall be so taxed."

(b.) By striking out Regulation (41) of Order 65, and substituting therefor the following:—

"(41.) Any party who may be dissatisfied with the certificate or allocatur of the taxing officer as to any item or part of an item which may have been objected to, or with the decision of the taxing officer as to the scale applicable to the taxation, or as to the apportionment of allowances under Rule 10E of this Order, may, within fourteen days from the date of the certificate or allocatur, or such other time as the Court or a Judge or taxing officer, at the time he signs his certificate or allocatur, may allow, apply to a Judge at Chambers for an order to review the taxation as to the same item or part of an item, and the Judge may thereupon make such order as the Judge may think just; but the certificate or allocatur of the taxing officer shall be final and conclusive as to all matters which shall not have been objected to in manner aforesaid."

And that the amendments aforesaid shall come into operation on the first day of November, 1938, and shall apply to all causes and matters commenced before, on, or after that date.

Attorney-General.
